

ST IVES SCHOOL CAREERS TEAM

“

Juliet Colclough

My name is Juliet Colclough.

I chose to become a Careers Ambassador because it is important to me that more people are aware of the ever-growing list of career paths.

I think the best bit of being an Ambassador is that you get to talk to all of the different employers you meet and you can try all of the activities that they use to excite the students.