

ST IVES SCHOOL CAREERS TEAM

“

Ben Barnett

My name Ben Barnett.

I chose to become a careers ambassador because I wanted to learn about careers for myself but also support other people. I think it is important to learn about career pathways.

I think the best bit of being a careers ambassador is hosting events; you get to meet many new people in industries you may never have heard of!