

ST IVES SCHOOL CAREERS TEAM

“

Bella Sutcliffe

My name is Bella Sutcliffe.

I chose to become a careers ambassador because I love to help other people and show them and myself the career options and paths available.

I think the best bit of being a careers ambassador is how kind the employers are because they talk to you and explain their career, which is great help for the future.